Time Awaits

The Kooks

Time waits for no man but you Time waits for no man but you Hold on don't leave this town Hold on don't leave this town

There we are With that in our hands They tear you down Cause they don't understand You tried it once again To love me better She tore those panties down Love me better

Woo oh oh oh Life comes in twos and threes and fours Woo oh oh oh And I hear you knocking at my door

So hold them down With blood on your hands It's past the point Where you don't understand The worst you do is lie Run for shelter So cast aside these chains Love me better

Woo oh oh oh Life comes in twos and threes and fours Woo oh oh oh And I hear you knocking at my door Woo oh oh oh Life comes in twos and threes and fours Woo oh oh oh And I hear you knocking at my door

I hear you knocking at my door darling twenty times or more $\left[4x\right]$
