Starlight and Stone

Kris Kristofferson

I just wanted a ride
I just want you to know I got nothing to hide
I got nowhere to go and the hunger is hard as a promise to keep and the night's are so long and the silence so deep

there's a piece of my mind the world can't erase I remember the time and the look on your face and I will tell the wind blow the stars from the sky the road never ends the soul never dies be who you are just as long as you can know in your heart I'm still your man

headin' for home starlight and stone
