

Cry Wolf

Kristinia DeBarge

Your rose painted black
When I need the best of you, yeah, give me the rest of you
I keep coming back
Cause you tell that you've changed but it always ends the same
I tell you it's over time after time
You say whatever, just to make it right
You send me flowers, and promise the sky
But it turns out your word is no good

You always cry wolf
You always cry wolf
I'm leaving so you can howl at the moon, auuuuuu!
You always cry, na na na na
You always cry, na na na na
You always cry wolf

I spoke with no flame
Should've known from the start, you were just a false alarm
Save the tears for fool love
Cause I now it's just a game, that you always made me play
Baby it's over, I mean it this time
You say whatever, just to make it right
You send me flowers, and promise the sky
But it turns out your word is no good

You always cry wolf
You always cry wolf
I'm leaving so you can howl at the moon, auuuuuu!
You always cry, na na na na
You always cry, na na na na
You always cry wolf

Can't believe I fell for your lies
Everytime you cried you really me going
Say you're a man, but you're a little boy
Too scared to tell the truth

You always cry wolf
You always cry wolf
I'm leaving so you can howl at the moon, auuuuuu!
You always cry, na na na na
You always cry, na na na na
You always cry wolf
