

Crystal Ball

Kristinia DeBarge

I wish I could read your mind
It would be so nice if I could see your dreams at night
Would it change our future?
If I close my eyes, toss this coin right in the fountain
In another life we're so natural

So all my cards on the table, read what they say if I can't explain
The lines on my palm will tell you, all that you need to know

Look at my crystal ball, oh yeah, my crystal ball, oh yeah
Put my heart in your hand, you want me to?
Look at my crystal ball, oh yeah, my crystal ball, oh yeah
When I look in the glass, see me and you...see me and you...see me and you

Wish we could loose track of time
Like we're lost in a trance and
Freeze this moment, press rewind
Like it never happened
I'm erasing crooked lines all in the picture
I'm reshaping, story left untold

So all my cards on the table, read what they say, if I can't explain
The lines on my palm will tell you, all that you need to know

Look at my crystal ball, oh yeah, my crystal ball, oh yeah
Put my heart in your hand, you want me to?
Look at my crystal ball, oh yeah, my crystal ball, oh yeah
When I look in the glass, see me and you
