Don't Pray

L.A. Guns

Don't pray to me, I'm not your God Or cry for me, I'm not your dog Don't worship me, I'm not your God Don't pray for me, Don't

Now I see it clearly, only myself left to blame People drawing near me, like a moth pulled by the flame Now I feel like a man who has lost his way Nothing is real to me, don't lean on me I'm not your Cain Don't wish me away, I'm not your pain Don't bury me, I'm not dead yet Don't pray for me, Don't

Now I'm feeling things that I've never ever even felt before Something's feeding me through a bleeding wound Like an open door Now I see it clearly, only myself left to blame People drawing near me, like a moth pulled by the flame

Don't pray, don't pray, don't pray for me Now I see it clearly your the one who is left to blame As you draw me to you, I'm the moth and you're the flame Now I'm feeling things that I've never ever even felt before Something's feeding me through a bleeding wound Like an open door

Don't pray for me
