

Hollywood Forever

L.A. Guns

Through wondering heights
Our city she burns bright
We love it, we lust it
Eternal rules the night
Glamorous queens, drug dealers breed
The stars on the sidewalk beckon fleeting dreams

We all mold the candle
We ught up the stage
As day turns to nighttime
Can you hear them say...

We play our games
Like moths to flames
Till death we shine together
We feed our fame
With our lives so vain
And scream Hollywood forever!

Come in with eager eyes
Tinsletown's cruel lies
You love it, you lust it
You're chained to its side
Runways and endless days
We know you're here to stay
How soon they forget
As we counting fading away

We all mold the candle
We light up the stage
As day turns to nighttime
Can you hear them say...

We play our games
Like moths to flames
Till death we shine together
We feed our fame
With our lives so vain
And scream Hollywood forever!

Ah-ha-ha-ha

Oh!

We all mold the candle
We light up the stage
As day turns to nighttime
Can you hear them say...

We play our games
Like moths to flames
Till death we shine together
We feed our fame
With our lives so vain
And scream Hollywood forever!

We play our games

Like moths to flames
Till death we shine together
We feed our fame
With our lives so vain
And scream Hollywood forever!
Hollywood forever!
Hollywood forever!

Oh-ho...

Ahh!
