Lush Life

Lady Gaga

I used to visit all the very gay places Those come-what-may places Where one relaxes on the axis of the wheel of life To get the feel of life From jazz and cocktails The girls I knew had sad and sullen gray faces With distingué traces That used to be there you could see where They'd been washed away By too many through the day Twelve o'clocktails

Then you came along with your siren's song To tempt me to madness I thought for a while that your pointed smile Was tinged with the sadness Of a great love for me Oh, yes, I was wrong Again, I was wrong

Life is lonely again And only last year Everything seemed so assured Now life is awful again And a truffle of hearts Could only be a bore

A week in Paris will ease the bite of it All I care is to smile in spite of it I'll forget you I will And yet you are still Burning inside my brain

Romance is mush Stifling those who strive I'll live a lush life In some small dive And there I'll be While I rot with the rest Of those whose lives are lonely too
