

Back to Beginning

Lamb

Grow up, child, come and face me
We've held on like orphans to a faded dream
We're not what we were. We won't fit in
We don't have to fight what is not what it seems
So don't think I'm going back to beginning

Oh, my love
Are you listening
Been trying so hard to understand
I'm not here
What turns the heart of a man
We've tried, and failed, again

Hold me tight, where did you go
The look in your eyes is scaring me so
I feel so lost and we are this way
The dreams of tomorrows or of yesterdays
If I could re-come back to beginning

Oh, my love
Are you listening
Been trying so hard to understand
I'm not here
What turns the heart of a man
Oh we've tried, and failed
No no no no, oh, my love
You're not listening
Been trying so hard to understand
I'm not here
What turns the heart of a man
We've tried and failed, again

Back to beginning
