

Someone To Believe

Lana Lane

Standing in the dark
No soul to guide me
Flames from candles dance upon
My lonely stone walls

Staring in a mirror and hoping to see
The queen that I long to be

And all I need
Is someone to believe in me
This haunting melody plays on and on

Take this wish my darling
Don't be frightened
The kingdom on the hill is waiting
For you to come

Everyone is sleeping
So no one will hear
By morning all will clear

And all I need
Is someone to believe in me
This haunting melody plays on and on

Everyone is sleeping
So no one will hear
By morning all will clear

And all I need
Is someone to believe in me
This haunting melody plays on and on

And all I need
Is someone to believe in me
This haunting melody plays on and on

Someone to believe
