

The Beast Within You

Lana Lane

In the theatre cold and dark he sleeps
While his music weeps
Send to hide inside the shadows for eternity

The beast within you
Always keeps you on the run
Fight the power, every hour
Every single one
The beast within you
Burning like the sun

Planning his revenge with evil's kill
Had it come to this?
Only Venus can release the love inside his heart

The beast within you
Always keeps you on the run
Fight the power, every hour
Every single one
The beast within you
Burning like the sun
