

Twelve Good Men

Larry Norman

I need twelve good men, I can only find eleven.
And there are six young lions,
I'm still waiting for number seven.
I may be living down here on earth,
But I am living for heaven.

I got a woman I'm in love with,
There's no need to say her name.
And no matter what happens, baby,
I'm gonna love you just the same.

Your love is like seeing an angel from heaven,
Love is so hard to explain.

I got this black leather jacket
The one I've had through all my youth.
I got these dark sunglasses
I feel just like William Booth.
Don't ask me nothin' 'bout nothin'
I just might tell you the truth
