

People always change
But I'm scared that I will always stay the same
Hear them talking about my picture in the frame
But it's upside down
I don't know who to blame

In twenty years I will be nothing
To you in your mind
But in your heart you're holding something
For the rest of your life

Say what you have to say
It's just the way it goes
I don't have any answers
You're programmed to be mine
I took you for a ride
It's time we both let go now

I'll remember all the nights
Alone together on the roof 'till it was bright
Gone forever like the wind that took the kite
We leave it all behind

Say what you have to say
It's just the way it goes
I don't have any answers
You're programmed to be mine

I took you for a ride
It's time we both let go now

The truth may never be revealed
Because your heart is a spinning wheel
You said so many things that couldn't be true
So tonight, I say adieu

Oh yeah you'll find your way back
I'm sure but I don't know how
You know I'd like to stay
But my instincts tell me

Say what you have to say
It's just the way it goes
I don't have any answers
You're programmed to be mine
I took you for a ride
It's time we both let go now

[Reversed voice]
We'll find our way back
In such a crazy world
We'll find our way back
In such a crazy world
We'll find our way back
In such a crazy world
We'll find our way back
