Shattered Glass

Laura Branigan

I gave you everything I had You took my heart and broke it bad I'm not the kind who can take it alone I've got nothing more for you I want somebody who needs me too I've given up, boy I'm chasing my joy And you can make your own You're not the only one 'Cos my time will come

You can shatter glass With your heart of stone But you won't get far on your own You keep running hot and blowing cold And everything you hold Just falls apart like shattered glass

It really doesn't matter to me Where you're going and who you see I know that I can make it this time It doesn't matter any more Since you've gone and walked out that door I made a new start I found a true heart I'm gonna make it mine Go out and have your fun 'Cos my time will come

You can shatter glass With your heart of stone But you won't get far on your own You keep running hot and blowing cold And everything you hold Just falls apart like shattered glass

You can shatter glass You can shatter glass

You're not the only one Go out and have your fun 'Cos my time will come

You can shatter glass With your heart of stone But you won't get far on your own You keep running hot and blowing cold And everything you hold Just falls apart like shattered glass
