

Unaware

Laura Marano

I like to walk
When you prefer to drive
I like to talk
After you say goodnight
You take your time
When I'm running late
But I don't mind
As long as I know
You're my day

I'll be there
You and I
We're never the same
Just like the sun trying to shine
Through the pouring rain
We use some time
I'm not always there
When you're unaware
When it seems like I just don't care
It's my love that I want to share
When you're unaware

I like to laugh
whenever you're sincere Sometime I last
When you've been perfectly clear
When I scream
you'll never utterly repeat
And when you had a bad dream
I was walking in my sleep

But I'll be there
You and I
We're never the same
Just like the sun trying to shine
through the pouring rain
We use some time
I'm not always there
When you're unaware
And it seems like I just don't care
It's my love that I want to share
When you're unaware

I know that you and I won't change
The best part is nothing stays the same
So I like when you and I connect
Or giving a kiss you least expect
You least expect
When you're unaware
And it seems like I just don't care

I'll be there
You and I
We're never the same
just like the sun trying to shine
through the pouring rain
We use some time

I'm not always there
When you're unaware
And it seems like I just don't care
It's my love that I want to share
When you're unaware
