

When You Wake Up

Laura Marano

Hey
Can we pause for a minute
Cause your heart isn't in it
And my head keeps spinning spinning around
I know that you say that you wanna
Doesn't mean that you're gonna
Stay

I can't make you wanna be
Something that's good for me
So goodnight I gotta leave
I know what you want when

You keep calling 3 in the morning
Don't know why I'm picking up anyway
You're just talking, talk to my body
Only time you listen what I gotta say
You keeping telling me that you're sorry
Apologies are nothing when you stay the same
But I would answer 3 in the morning
If you ever change

So wake me up when you wake up
Wake me up when you wake up
Wake me up when you wake up
If you ever change

Hey
I'm trying to keep it together
But when I sleep in your sweater
It got me thinking thinking thinking about you
How it feels when you hold me
But I'd rather be lonely
Than lonely with you

I can't make you wanna be
Something that's good for me
So goodnight I gotta leave
I know what you want when

You keep calling 3 in the morning
Don't know why I'm picking up anyway
You're just talking, talk to my body
Only time you listen what I gotta say
You keeping telling me that you're sorry
Apologies are nothing when you stay the same
But I would answer 3 in the morning
If you ever change

So wake me up when you wake up
Wake me up when you wake up
Wake me up when you wake up
If you ever change

A little bit, a little bit broken
A little bit, a little bit hoping
I left the door a little too open

I know what you want when

You keep calling 3 in the morning

Hmmm

But you're just talking, talk to my body

Yeah

You keep calling 3 in the morning

Don't know why I'm picking up anyway

But you're just talking, talk to my body

Only time you listen what I gotta say

You keeping telling me that you're sorry

Apologies are nothing when you stay the same

But I would answer 3 in the morning

If you ever change

So wake me up when you wake up

Wake me up when you wake up

Wake me up when you wake up

If you ever change

So wake me up when you wake up

Wake me up when you wake up

Wake me up when you wake up

If you ever change
