

Take the Devil in Me

Leaves' Eyes

I am drifting away
I've counted my last days
Between my lips a silent cry
I swore to the Gods
I will let grace win
The battle of my heart
I cry for angels to save me
Take the devil in me
Save me for I've been mistaken
Save one moment of my life
Take the devil in me
A mind at peace with every spirit
Before I leave I shall forgive
My heart stops beating
It makes me see how bright life could have been
