Another Sleep Song

Maybe I'm just tired I'm never getting any sleep Maybe I'm just tired All of the secrets that I have to keep

[CHORUS] And if I stay until the break of day Chances are you won't remember my name And when the morning comes I'll be on my way

One more night of my town And I swear I put the bottle down Goes you follow but I need you, see [???]

Chorus x 2

And if I stay until the break of day Chances are you won't remember my name And when the morning comes And when the morning comes I'll be on my way
