

Snaps

Lee DeWyze

Come with me and I will take you away
To a place where all the flowers and the children play
Your alone but it feels so right
You can bathe in the sun or dance in the moonlight

You're so scared
But trust me I'm well aware
How easily a paper heart can tear
Your alone honey don't be afraid
Because its hard to see the world when everything is gray

Oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh
Your green eyes tell tales of goodbyes
It only happens to us once in our lives
Love Love well it's only a word
I try to remember but it's mostly a blur
And I can remember your head in my hands
And I can remember part of the plan

Oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh
Come with me and I will take you away
To a place where all the flowers and the children play
Your alone but it feels so right
You can bath in the sun or dance in the moon light

Your so scared
But trust me I'm well aware
How easily a paper heart can tear
Your alone honey don't be afraid
Because it's hard to see the world when everything is gray

Oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh
