

You Don't Know Me

Lee DeWyze

You don't know me
So why you're staring me down?
You don't know me
And I don't want you around

And like a bullet from your lips
That hit me right between the eyes
We knew it had to come to this
So it shouldn't come as a surprise

The problem is
In all of this

You don't know me
You don't know me
You don't know me
Like you did before

What happened to your kiss?
There is nothing left inside
Well there must be more than this
At least I can say I tried

The problem is
In all of this

You don't know me
You don't know me
You don't know me
Like you did before

I wish I was wrong...
I wish I was wrong...
I wish I was wrong...
I wish I was wrong...
