

Fear of Being Alone

Lennon Stella

No, can't fix it
Don't decide, it's what this is
But I can't take another life with your empty kiss
Feel like I'm pushing, like it's time to call it quits

When I hold you, I get the feeling I don't know you
I get the feeling it's not love that keeps us holding on
It's not love that keeps us holding on

It's the fear of, it's the fear of being alone
'Cause then I know (Ah)
It's the fear of, it's the fear of being alone
'Cause then I know (Ah)

He comments I shouldn't go ahead and give it up like this
And I really, really wish

I didn't have to make excuses
'Cause I'm scared to find out what the truth is
'Cause I'm scared to find out it's not love that keeps us holdi ng on
It's not love that keeps us holding on

(Ah) it's the fear of, it's the fear of being alone
'Cause then I know (Ah)
It's the fear of, it's the fear of being alone
'Cause then I know (Ah)

It's the fear of, it's the fear of being alone
'Cause then I know (Ah)
It's the fear of, it's the fear of being alone
'Cause then I know (Ah)
