Get On With It

Letters to Cleo

The Sunday Paper is a mess and I'm not gonna pick it up you are if I could just get on with it. It don't matter my hair's a mess cause you're not gonna fix it up for me I am if I could just get on with it I would take a breath outside myself

A stranger place I couldn't find and no one knows who I am and you can't say my name. Can't think of anything else worse 'Cause if I didn't fuck it up you would Why can't you just do something right.

Just once change my mind cause if you can I'd be the one you kn ow I am But you're so blind, you always were I didn't catch your name. I would take a breath outside myself A stranger place I couldn't find and no one knows who I am and you can't say my name.
