

I was on your side
And I can't believe that it's
Coming back to haunt me
You were on that side too
And I can't, no I can't go back
And save you

Why didn't you do as you were told
Why didn't you just go home
And what'cha got in the bag

Non-recognition
Is the way to keep everything you want to hide
You stay on that side now
Cause I won't, no I won't go back
And bail you out

Closer to the thing we had before
And what'cha got in the bag

You were closer than you thought
Closer than you thought you'd get
Don't you worry that pretty head now
Never thought that's what you'd get

Non-recognition
Is the way to keep everything you want to hide
You stay on that side now
Cause I won't, no I won't go back
And bail you out

Why didn't you do as you were told
Why didn't you just go home
And now you're never coming back

You were closer than you thought
Closer than you thought you'd get
Don't you worry that pretty head now
Never thought that's what you'd get
