

why does this feel so appealing
i am overwhelmed
you tell me there's a reason for this feeling you were drunk on 12
you tell me

[i have no idea what they're saying]

hey hey hey
when the sky was grey and the water fell on top of us to wash us away

hey hey hey
dirty clouds are rough and they're banging back and forth throwing lightning at us

hey hey hey
if you wanna get struck throw the metal in the water and come dancing with us

come save this
come save this
come save this
my heart

come savor it
come savor it
come savor it
my heart

[i have no idea what they're saying]
[some of this is probably wrong]
