

New Fears

Lights

I left my body
Down on her knees
Over the bedside
Watching you breathe
And I saw the fire
I felt the flames
I heard the banshees
Calling your name
'Cause I have these new fears I carry with me
So you can feel stronger, you can know peace
So just hold on tight
I'll be coming, I'm coming for you, oh oh
And every night
I'll be burning, burning for you, oh oh
And I will back you up, I will show you love
I will give you all I got 'til I cannot
Hold on tight
I'm breathing, breathing for you, oh oh
When you come undone
I'll carry your chains
So you can feel freedom
And a little less pain
And if the poison
Burns in your blood
I'll drink the venom
Out of the cut
'Cause I have these new fears that carry me through Every bullet I'm taking for you
So just hold on tight
I'll be coming, I'm coming for you, oh oh
And every night
I'll be burning, burning for you, oh oh
And I will back you up, I will show you love
I will give you all I got 'til I cannot
Hold on tight
I'm breathing, breathing for you, oh oh
I'll take two times the misery
And half the glory
Then learn to be the champion
Of the story
And I'll take two times the agony
And half the wonder
If it meant you get twice
Twice the thunder
Hold on tight
And every night
I'll be burning, burning for you, oh oh
And I will back you up, I will show you love
I will give you all I got 'til I cannot
Hold on tight
