

Crocodile Tears

Lil Eddie

[Verse 1:]

Never was my type, till you changed my mind
When it came to those three words babe
You know you said 'em first
We just didn't work, you think I'm a jerk
Said it's over now, you're tryna hit me where it hurts

[Chorus:]

You [?] walked out of my life
Baby yeah that's fine with me
There must be something in my eye
Baby yeah I'm not crying
What my heart's feeling is a lie
Baby yeah I disagree
I said I didn't want you but that's all for you
Crocodile tears
Don't for a second believe, that you broke my heart baby
Crocodile tears
Although they keep coming down, I won't admit to this frown
They're crocodile tears

[Verse 2:]

All those pricey calls
Drop them moment you pick up
Yeah it's me I wanna tell her bad
But no she gotta say it first
It's a tug-of-war, got one foot outside the door
Can't avoid it cause I'm just as bad and my pride's holding me back

[Chorus:]

You [?] walked out of my life
Baby yeah that's fine with me
There must be something in my eye
Baby yeah I'm not crying
What my heart's feeling is a lie
Baby yeah I disagree
I said I didn't want you but that's all for you
Crocodile tears
Don't for a second believe, that you broke my heart baby
Crocodile tears
Although they keep coming down, I won't admit to this frown
They're crocodile tears, they're crocodile tears
I'm not really crying
Shed a tear or two baby, but that's it for you, that's it for you

[Bridge:]

Cause would it even matter
If i said I never meant to turn you away baby
We would still be in the same place
Even if I let you see me break
So I keep on crying

Crocodile tears
Don't for a second believe, that you broke my heart baby
Crocodile tears
Although they keep coming down, I won't admit to this frown
They're crocodile tears, they're crocodile tears
