

World Ending

Lil Eddie

One more time,
One more time.
Ah yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah.
Ah yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah.

I know that you like,
Know that you like rainy days baby,
So we could lay up.
The way that we love,
You like it rough,
Pin you down like I'm your gladiator.
And you know that I like you in my white t-shirt
Hair up, but no make-up.
So if I gotta decide,
You or the guys,
Put my girl first, I'll see them later.

Because... She's the kind of girl
That comes every millions years
I'm crazy,
If I broke my word, just up and disappear.

So if you wake and I'm not there,
Wake up and you can't find me.
S.O.S. just send it out for me,
The world is ending today.
Wake up to no morning kiss,
You know I would never do that.
I'd never let nothing keep me away,
So it gotta mean the world is ending today.
It must be ending today.
Girl I'm sorry to say, yeah.
So it gotta mean the world is ending today.

We got it made,
We got it made, every month girl our bills are paid up.
Got everything here, don't need the outside girl,
We can stay back caved up.
See I got it made, no need to brag,
Got the curves in all the right places, ah yeah.
So why would I risk it for a fly-by night,
When my baby is greater?

Because... She's the kind of girl
That comes every millions years
I'm crazy,
If I broke my word, just up and disappear.

So if you wake and I'm not there,
Wake up and you can't find me.
S.O.S. just send it out for me,
The world is ending today.
Wake up to no morning kiss,
You know I would never do that.
I'd never let nothing keep me away,
So it gotta mean the world is ending today.
It must be ending today.

Girl I'm sorry to say, yeah.
So it gotta mean the world is ending today.

One more time,
One more time.
Ah yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah.
Ah yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah.

If you don't see me before sunrise,
You know we're running out of time.
If we're in trouble someday,
I hope we never see that day!

So if you wake and I'm not there,
Wake up and you can't find me.
S.O.S. just send it out for me,
The world is ending today.
Wake up to no morning kiss,
You know I would never do that.
I'd never let nothing keep me away,
So it gotta mean the world is ending today.
It must be ending today.
Girl I'm sorry to say, yeah.
So it gotta mean the world is ending today.
Today, yeahhh.
