

Decline

Lil Tjay

Turn that shit up, TNT
No, no
Lil Tjay, yeah, yeah

He might treat you better, however, this what you fail to remember
You know I'm stacking my cheddar, you know I be there whenever
I'm in that lane with slow eyes, it still got me in the skies (Yeah)
So when you call me, don't assume that I'll be pressing decline
When you call me, don't assume that I'll be pressing decline
If you call me, don't assume that I'll be pressing decline (Oh no)
I don't be pressing decline
Just so much weight on my mind

Keep it up so they won't know
Let's go somewhere they won't go
Fuck all that taking it slow
Right now, I'm letting you know
Right now, I'm letting it blow
They tryna gash me with lies
So if you really by my side, I hope you're ready to ride
They do this many times
You my bride, you stick by me everytime
Always staying, nigga acting funny, he gon' let it fly
But I'm just tryna teach you little bits about me, yeah
I'm right here right now but this ain't when I plan to be
Should be somewhere overseas, touring and getting cheese
But I'm right here in the town, always moving around
When I was down, down, down, down, down, down
Mama proud, proud, proud, proud, proud, proud
Look at me now, I'm gripping so don't try to book me now
I'm the youngest nigga making noise, have to book me down
I was down, down, down, down, down, down
Mama proud, proud, proud, proud, proud, proud
Smoking GT out the pound, laughing 'cause he a clown
Woulda had a cap and gown if Smelly was still around
But it's pain in me, thinking about it makes me get angry
Hang with me, riding around town with the gang on me
Girl, I fuck with you, you should know exactly where you stand
I'm only saying the truth, so serious, I ain't playin'
And I'm speeding like the fast and furious music playin'
In the telly, I'ma play with your clitorous while you layin'
Don't you understand, what I'm sayin'?
If I fall off and lose my bands, baby is you stayin'?
Maybe, I don't understand how this shit unfaze you
No time to be patient, I took my mama off, still saying

He might treat you better, however, this what you fail to remember
You know I'm stacking my cheddar, you know I be there whenever
I'm in that lane with slow eyes, it still got me in the skies (Yeah)
So when you call me, don't assume that I'll be pressing decline
When you call me, don't assume that I'll be pressing decline
If you call me, don't assume that I'll be pressing decline (Oh no)
I don't be pressing decline
Just so much weight on my mind

Only time I press decline if I know you ain't know shit
And I always try to catch a vibe but you ain't ever on shit

In Miami, we went slip and slide, went deeper than the ocean
I'm the type of guy that's always fly, and gon' keep me some motion
I can't fuck around with the other side 'cause they be on some ho shit
I'm wearing Cartier to cover my eyes, I'm staying focused
Money coming in, I get high, tryna stay lowkey
The lawyers say, "We going to trial, we don't take no pleas"
Back then, we steal cars, we ain't got no keys
Modern days, we drive foreign, ain't pushing no keys
Watch came with VVS, see me on TV
Back stage with RiRi, my life on repeat
I be grinding so hard I be forgetting to eat
Put up everyday around the world, I don't get no sleep
Turned to a monster like I damn near don't know me
I don't care for listening, you gon' have to show me

He might treat you better, however, this what you fail to remember
You know I'm stacking my cheddar, you know I be there whenever
I'm in that lane with slow eyes, it still got me in the skies (Yeah)
So when you call me, don't assume that I'll be pressing decline
When you call me, don't assume that I'll be pressing decline
If you call me, don't assume that I'll be pressing decline (Oh no)
I don't be pressing decline
Just so much weight on my mind
