Limp

Seen it all before Not like this
Not my trip
This is what I saw Saw the lot of you Doing things
Saying things And in front of me
You didn't seem to care who was there
What was heard it affected me Wash my hands of you over this
This is through this is what I mean

By now you've moved on I assume still alone With that attitude Now you find yourself
By yourself,
on your own With a big ego
No one there to feed
what you need Give you peace and or anything
I need something good Something else
This is through
this is what I mean

It pours out of you and into me
