

wrong girl

Lindsay Ell

Someone to call
When there's something you need
Somebody to keep within your reach
Someone to give, 'cause you only take
Somebody who lets you just get your way, hey

If that's what you're looking for
You should be looking for somebody new

You've got the wrong girl
If you think I don't know what I'm worth you're living in the Wrong world
I'm better than that I know what I deserve
And if you think that you're gonna
Come get what you want
Whenever you want and be gone
You've got the wrong girl
You've got the wrong girl

I'm not gonna bend
Let you make the rules
And only do things that benefit you
I ain't gonna change
Cause I'm already good
Think again
If you think I would

You've got the wrong girl
If you think I don't know what I'm worth you're living in the wrong world
I'm better than that I know what I deserve
And if you think that you're gonna
Come get what you want
Whenever you want and be gone
You've got the wrong girl
You've got the wrong girl

If that's what you're looking for
You should be looking for Somebody new

You've got the wrong girl
If you think I don't know what I'm worth you're living in the wrong world
I'm better than that I know what I deserve
And if you think that you're gonna
Come get what you want
Whenever you want and be gone
You've got the wrong girl
You've got the wrong girl
If you think I don't know what I'm worth
You've got the wrong girl
