Lion Babe

You think I'm impossible
You think that it's logical
To think you know about me, what you know about me?
I got things I could say that would probably change your views

I've lost my head top, don't you stop
I wanna see you rock
I got that drop-drop, still on lock
Now you're gonna have to watch
I've lost my head top, don't you stop
I wanna see you rock
I got that drop-drop, still on lock
Now you're gonna have to watch

You can break me down and shake me
Don't try to rearrange me
No way you can mistake me, it's impossible
You can break me down and shake me
Don't try to rearrange me
No way that you can change me, it's impossible

Impossible
Impossible
Impossible
Impossible

You think I'm obtainable
You see I'm untamable
To think you know about me, what you know about me?
I got things I could say that would probably change your views

I've lost my head top, don't you stop
I wanna see you rock
I got that drop-drop, still on lock
Now you're gonna have to watch
I've lost my head top, don't you stop
I wanna see you rock
I got that drop-drop, still on lock
Now you're gonna have to watch

You can break me down and shake me
Don't try to rearrange me
No way you can mistake me, it's impossible
You can break me down and shake me
Don't try to rearrange me
No way that you can change me, it's impossible
You can break me down and shake me
Don't try to rearrange me
No way you can mistake me, it's impossible
You can break me down and shake me
Don't try to rearrange me
No way that you can change me, it's impossible
