Now You're Gone

Lionel Richie

All alone on a mystic night There you stood in the pale moonlight I wanted to know you You were standing here and now you're gone

You could just feel the passion all in the air I wanted to touch you but I would not dare I had to know you You were standing here and now you're gone

Oh, Oh, Oh You are standing here and now you're gone

You started to dance, so slow, so smooth Your body seduced me on your every mode Just had to know you You were standing here and now you're gone

Then you stopped, he called out to you You turned and left me, there was nothing I could do I wanted to know you You were standing here and now you're gone

Oh, Oh, Oh You were standing here and now you're gone
