

Why

Lisa Stansfield

Don't wanna know why I love you
Don't wanna know why I care
Don't wanna know why I bat my eyes
And the way I flick my hair
I don't wanna know why

Don't wanna belong in the future
Don't wanna belong in the past
Don't wanna know why I want you here
But just let this moment last
'Cause I don't wanna know why
I don't wanna know why

Don't wanna know why you're wrong 'un
Don't wanna know why you're sly
I just wanna see that look you give me before you make cry
I don't wanna know why
I don't wanna know why

Don't wanna know why I love you
Don't wanna know why I care
Don't wanna know why I bat my eyes
And the way I flick my hair
Don't wanna know why you're wrong 'un
Don't wanna know why you're sly
I just wanna see that look you give me before you make me cry
I don't wanna know why
Don't wanna know why

Don't wanna know nothing babe
