

Questions

Little Big Town

Do you still kill the radio pulling up the drive
Still say you'll only smoke on a Saturday night
Do you still hang out at the bar at the end of our street
'Cause I can't go there anymore
Did you find my jean jacket on your back seat
Is there anything you wanna ask me

'Cause I got questions
With no intention
Of ever saying them out loud
Did you give her my old key
Am I anywhere in your memory
I can't sleep it's keeping me up tonight
I got questions

Did your brother move back home or is he still in LA
Is the back porch light still broke
Does it hurt when you hear my name

Is Songbird spinning on the 45
'Cause I can't listen anymore
Is your heart still on your sleeve
Is there anything you wanna ask me

'Cause I got questions
With no intention
Of ever saying them out loud
Did you give her my old key
Am I anywhere in your memory
I can't sleep it's keeping me up tonight
I got questions
I got questions

Are you thinking about giving her your grandma's ring
The one your mama gave you to give to me
Oh, I was just wondering

I got questions
With no intention of ever saying them out loud
