& Me You

Lollipop

You say you luv me,and what you'd do for me But you're uncertain,how will i react You look real nervous,so scared that i'll turn And never look back(whoa)

I didn't swear i would stay(Did i) I never thought you would doubt me that way But if you need an answer in all honesty

You say you want me,each ady you love me deeper Well baby and me u You long to hold me, i make your life much sweeter that's how i feel for you too

(oohh etc)

I move real slowly,i guess it's just my away That doesn't mean i don't feel deep inside When you're not with me i want to be there just holding you tig ht (so tight)

It's not like i feel unsure (oh)

My heart is focused like never before And if you need an answer in all honesty

You say you want me,each ady you love me deeper Well baby and me u You long to hold me, i make your life much sweeter that's how i feel for you too

You say you want me,each ady you love me deeper Well baby and me u You long to hold me, i make your life much sweeter that's how i feel for you too
