

Accidents

Lord Vicar

Sometimes I need to take a walk
Become a stranger in the crowd
Always searching for your eyes
Free from the blindness people follow

I know that I've been here before
And I swear, sometimes you were with me
In different times we witnessed places
Returning there I'll always find you

Every night I see them come,
The accidents will happen
People truly live their lives
In a random godless game

'Have no fear', I said to you
But is there fear in my heart?
Fear of being cast aside
Fear of being loved

Fear of being able to Show my deepest feelings
Fear of being there for you
When I am feeling cruel
