

Deeper And Deeper

Loretta Lynn

We once made a promise that's no longer true
We go on pretending, that's all that we do
We're falling deeper and deeper out of love

So you tell me stories, I tell you lies
We go through the motions, but we realize
We're falling deeper and deeper out of love

We talk to each other, but nothing is said
We're sleeping together, but we're lying in bed
We're falling deeper and deeper out of love

We won't say it's over, we can't say it's through
We might deny it, oh the denying is true
We're falling deeper and deeper out of love

We're falling deeper and deeper out of love
