

From Now On

Loretta Lynn

Lately when you kiss me your lips are just lukewarm
And there's a bored look on your face when you hold me in your arms
You act like it's your duty to love me when you do
So from now on when you're lovin' on me you better act like you 're wantin' too

You've been a gettin' your lovin' some place else and I know it
So I'm a gonna give you one more chance so you better not blow it
You better shape up or start shippin' out big man I'm warnin' you
So from now on when you're lovin' on me you better act like you 're wantin' too

I've noticed now for quite awhile when I talk you don't hear
You stare out into space and you act like you don't hear
But I ache for arms to hold me cause I'm human just like you
So from now on when you're lovin' on me you better act like you 're wantin' too

You've been a gettin' your lovin' some place else and I know it
So I'm a gonna give you one more chance so you better not blow it
You better shape up or start shippin' out big man I'm warnin' you
So from now on when you're lovin' on me you better act like you 're wantin' too
Yeah from now on when you're lovin' on me you better act like you 're wantin' too
