

The Dead Is a'Risin'

Loretta Lynn

Lately, I've been finding out she's all you ever talk about
And I know she's still more than just a friend
You've been saying all along your love for her was dead and gone
But now the dead is risin' up again

And the dead is risin'
And to the livin', it's surprisin'
I never thought of thinking it would end
Ah but now old memories haunt me
Make me feel like you don't want me
And now the dead is risin' up again

I helped you bury all the hurt you gave
But now you're digging in her grave
Bringing up old memories from way back then
And as long as you still love her
There's no way we can save each other
'Cause now the dead is risin' up again

And the dead is risin'
And to the livin', it's surprisin'
I never thought of thinking it would end
Ah but now old memories haunt me
Make me feel like you don't want me
And now the dead is risin' up again
