

You Know Just What I'd Do

Loretta Lynn

Would I walk your rocky road or take a different path
Would I sell my pride for you
If you ask me to walk the streets you know just what I'd do

Would your child have a home
If it should be born of love other than our own
Would I still stand by you
Knowing you've loved someone else you know just what I'd do

If my love for you meant giving up my life would I lay it down for you
And if you were blind would I give you my sight
You know just what I'd do if you ask me to

Would I live with the scar
That you carry in your heart from another woman's war
Would I lend you wounds for you
If I knew you needed me you know just what I'd do
