More Than I Can Stand

Oh, baby Girl, don't pull the rug from under my feet Don't do it baby Don't leave, don't leave me so I'm talking in my sleep

This could be the start of a nightmare Waking up and not finding you there It would be more than I could stand

Oh, baby Girl, don't leave me so I'm pacing the floor Don't do it baby 'Cause that's, that's what I'll do If you close the door, yeah

Maybe I've been too hung up on myself But don't change me by putting my heart on a shelf It would be more than I could stand, listen baby

Why you wanna leave me? Why you wanna go? I promise not to never hurt you, no more Please don't leave me, please don't go It's causin' my heart to ache, causin' it to break

We, we've still got a love Got of love to give, yeah So turn around, baby, turn around While there's a lot of life to live

Leavin' me would ruin all of my plans It would be like tying the both of my hands And that is more baby than I could stand, yeah

Why you wanna leave me? Why you wanna go? I promise not, never hurt you, no more Please don't leave me, please don't go I promise not, never, never hurt you, no more

Please don't leave me, please don't go I promise not, never hurt you, no more Please don't leave me, please don't go I promise not, never hurt you, no more

Please don't go, baby, please don't leave I never, never, I never, never hurt you, no more
