Didn't It Rain

Louis Armstrong

Didn't it rain, children?
Talk about rain, oh, my Lord
Didn't it fall, didn't it fall?
Didn't it fall, my Lord, didn't it rain?

Oh, it rained forty days
And it rained forty nights
There was no land nowhere in sight
God, send the angel to spread the news

He hastes his wings and away he flew To the East to the West To the North to the South All day all night

How it rained, how it rained Didn't it rain, children? Talk about rain, oh, my Lord Didn't it fall, didn't it fall?

Didn't it fall, my Lord, didn't it rain?

Some at the window, some at the door

Some said, "Noah, can't you take a little more?"

"No, no," said Noah, "no, no, my friends"

The nature got to keep; you can't get in I told you, I told you a long time ago You wouldn't hear me; you disobey me Lord, send the angel a warning to you

It began to rain and now you are through Well, it rained forty days
Forty nights without stopping
Noah was glad

When the rain stopped dropping Knock at the window, knock at the door Come on, brother Noah Can't you take little more?

No, no, my brothers, you are full of sin God has the key; you can't get in Would you listen? how it rained Didn't it rain, children?

Talk about rain, oh, my Lord Didn't it fall, didn't it fall? Didn't it fall, my Lord, didn't it rain?
