My Bucket's Got a Hole In It

Louis Armstrong

Oh, the bucket's got a hole in it
Hmm, the bucket's got a hole in it
The bucket's got a hole in it
And we can't buy no more beer

I said the bucket's got a hole in it
It's too bad, the bucket's got a hole in it
Yeah, man, the bucket's got a hole in it

Somebody better run [Incomprehensible]

It's after hours and you can't get in
It's after hours and you can't get in
We close at nine and now it's half past ten
Oh honey would you [Incomprehensible]
