

S.I.C. (You Call Me)

Lovedrug

In the depths of only your heart
You call me
In the depths of only your heart

These days I feel mistaken
No change
But there's a voice inside of my head
It says that a hollow is coming
Descend, amen
Will you make everything beautiful

In the depths of only your heart
You call me
In the depths of only your heart

I'm saved, no more forsaken
Engaged
And it goes, and it goes, and it goes
Please stay, this puzzle is a shell shock
No friends, I'm spent
Will you make everything beautiful

In the depths of only your heart
You call me
In the depths of only your heart
You call me
In the depths of only your heart
You call me
In the depths of only your heart

S.I.C. S.I.C.
I'm bored to death
S.I.C. S.I.C.
There's a hole in my head
S.I.C. S.I.C.
I forgot your mess
S.I.C. S.I.C.
All in all it's beautiful
All in all it's beautiful
All in all it's beautiful
All in all it's beautiful
All in all it's beautiful

S.I.C. S.I.C.
S.I.C. S.I.C.
S.I.C. S.I.C.

In the depths of only your heart
You call me
In the depths of only your heart
You call me
In the depths of only your heart
You call me
In the depths of only your heart
You call me
You call me
You call me
