

Into Your Eyes

Lucero

Well I'm not suppose to see you looking
Not suppose to stare straight into your eyes
Into your eyes
I'm not supposed to kiss your lips
But you smiled so sweet
I can't resist those eyes

Now you say you might have eyes for me
I can only wish that you were mine
That you were mine
Well I'm not supposed to be here with you
But how can I leave
If you look at me with those eyes
Into your eyes
Into your eyes

I'm not supposed to kiss your lips
But you smiled so sweet
I can't resist those eyes
And I'm not supposed to kiss your lips
But you smiled so sweet
I can't resist those eyes
