

Who You Waiting On?

Lucero

I mainly work hard at being lazy but I couldn't help but notice you drink
Alone a lot lately
Well I think I could start a career at a sittin' next to you an d lookin in Your eyes my dear

Come on baby who you waitin' on, he's been makin' you wait far too long I ain't a thief and I don't look to steal, but I saw you try to hide it
When you wiped away those tears Your boy is runnin' late and I'm makin' you a deal so come on n ow

You wear that jacket like it's made out of steel
You got your jack and coke, you hide behind it like a sheild Your sittin lonely and your twenty dollars in, to that jukebox and your Songs are all about to end

Come on baby who you waitin on, he's been makin' you wait far t oo long I ain't a thief and I don't look to steal, but your boy is runn in' late and I'm makin' you a deal Come on baby who you waitin' on, I think it must have Been me all along, Now I aint tryin' to come on too strong, but the way you Brush your hair back lookin' towards the door, every time it op ens your Heart breaks a little more I could be your man never make you w ait on me I Promise you a heart so true I'm beggin' honey please just walk away I'm all Yours you see Ain't no need to wait, we could burn this whole t own down
Alright

We're gettin' shut down we're gettin' thrown out, tell me littl e girl where You gonna go to wait now
I got my car here, parked right outside, let's turn up the radi o and take
It for a little ride

Come on baby who you waitin' on? He's been makin' you wait far
too long

I ain't a thief and I don't look to steal but I saw you try to hide it when You wiped away those tears, Come along with me we can find anot her beer I Don't think they'll ever kick us out the Buccaneer, hell come o n now, just Come on now
