The one who truly cares
Would never lay you bare
And he can tell you all
The one who truly cares
What's inside
your own heart
He may come closer

The one who truly knows
That all the world's not yours
But you can tell him all
The one who truly knows
What's inside
your own heart
He can come closer

You will get all you need
You will get all you want
You will get all you wish with real love
You will go where you need
You will go where you want
You will do everything
with real love

The one who truly feels
Your pain and all your needs
The only one who feels What's dream and what is real
Is inside
your own heart
He can't be closer.

The one who truly knows
That you're not best of all
The only one who knows
That you and nothing more
Is inside
your own heart
He can't be closer

You will get all you need... (2x)
