Dark Vision

Lunar Aurora

Nights of ceremonial union High priests of black divine Summon the black knights From beyond the darkened veil Into the nightsky above Moon in blades reflecting Cover the souls with an unholy pale light Soon turning into darkness Forever watched by the eye above - beyond Catched by one black knight or another The nights growing endless Under the reign of the priests Summoning the eternal unlight Awaiting a spark of time A mighty black wizard enters Into the infinite black skies Now and forever For a cold void vision In eternal time
