I'm a little fish
in muddy waters
I am on my guard
I better duck
stay on my side

hungry as I am
we living beings only
try to stay alive
I don't really want to tangle with'

and it's wise
to realise my size
in here

to realise that mice
I should never eat 'em

sometimes I'd like to be exempted
from the daily fight for kindness and for acceptance sometimes I try to understand it

I cannot survive
without adjustment
and compromise

and it's wise
to realise my size

to realise that mice
