

Darkness

Lycia

and then I think about just every little thing and then I fade on the edge of this darkness and then I sing just one last song a song so sweet, but so full of darkness darkness, so full of darkness I am so full of darkness this feeling fades away, with every little thing and then I slide to the depths of this darkness I just hope and pray for just one more day a day so sweet, so far from this darkness I don't think that I can feel free inside again and as I feel it fade I am so full of darkness darkness...so full of darkness
