Bedtime Story

Lynn Anderson

I've told you almost every bedtime story And you've heard almost every nursery rhyme So tonight before you'll go to sleep and pray the Lord your sou l to keep Here's mommy's favorite story one more time Once upon a time there was a castle and in this castle lived a king and queen And it came to pass they both were blessed by one little blue e yed princess With the softest golden curls you've ever seen And then one day he met this pretty lady and she had lots of pr etty words to say And this part makes your mommy sad cause oh what big eyes she h ad And she took his hand and led him far away Still it's just another bedtime story but telling it brings tea rdrops to my eyes Just another pretty bedtime story so please forgive mommy if sh e cries

Then it came to pass the king grew lonely and the pretty lady w asn't all she seemed He realized that he was wrong and started his long journey home For he missed his little princess and his queen Then he was back and safe inside his castle And tears of joy came falling down like rain Then the castle rang with laughter they lived happy ever after Knowing he would never leave again Still it's just another bedtime story Won't you please forgive your mommy if she cries
